

ACTIVITÉS DES COMITÉS NATIONAUX

C. Liste des thèses et dissertations en préparation.

AUSTRALIE

- Supervised by Pauline Allen (Australian Catholic University):

D. Burke, Ps.-Dionysius and the Enneagram.

R. Davies, Basil of Caesarea and pneumatology.

M.G. Michael, The reception of the book of Revelation in the Patristic period.

D. Tsakas, Maximus Confessor and gender.

- Supervised by Joan Barclay Lloyd (La Trobe University):

G. Birch, The Development of Altarpieces in Tuscany, c.1350-c.1400.

V. Cloney, Sepulchral monuments in Northern Italy 1250 to 1400.

S. Halstead, The illustration of Pontificals in the 13th and 14th centuries.

- Supervised by Lynda Garland (University of New England):

G. Carpis, Celibacy and Marriage in the Works of Theodore the Studite.

T. Dawson, Developments in Byzantine Court Dress and Regalia 800-1350.

A. Silvas, The Great Asketikon of St Basil of Caesarea.

- Supervised by Sam Lieu, Macquarie University:

Peter Edwell, The Late Roman Frontier in Syria.

- Supervised by John Melville-Jones (University of Western Australia):

I. C. Martlew, The Byzantine Novel in the 12th century, with particular reference to the Drosilla and Charicles of Nicetas Eugenianus.

N. Cassidy, The History of George Pachymeres, books I and II.

- Supervised by Margaret O'Hea (University of Adelaide):

F. Harley, Crucifix iconography in the first five centuries AD.

- Supervised by Roger Scott (University of Melbourne):

M. Greene, The second council of Nicaea.

K. Hay, The Impact of Palestinian Monasticism: Charisma, Control and Controversy.

A. Messer, The Hymns of Romanos.

D. Sakel, The Chronicle of Dorotheos of Monemvasia.

A. Sunderland, The Psalter Commentary of Daniel of Selah.

G. Withers, The political use of miracles in the first five centuries A.D.

- Supervised by Paul Tuffin and Wendy Mayer (University of Adelaide):

S. Trczionka, Magic in the Eastern Mediterranean in the fourth century.